Experience

Paweł Wityński is a lawyer at the KRW Legal who specializes in issues related to capital market law, with a particular focus on the activities of brokerage houses and investment funds.

Prior to joining the KRW Legal team, he gained experience for almost two years working in the Legal Department of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority, where he primarily conducted administrative proceedings against supervised entities operating in the capital and insurance market. The main activities he performed in the proceedings were analyzing evidence collected during the proceedings and creating draft administrative decisions.

He completed his master's studies by defending a thesis related to the subject of the use of temporary arrest. During his studies, he was also a member of the Legal Clinic at the University of Warsaw, providing free legal advices.
