Experience

Tomasz Kamiński specializes in capital markets law, commercial law and bankruptcy law. He also represents his clients in proceedings before the Polish Financial Supervision Authority.

Before joining the team he worked in the Polish Financial Supervision Authority in the Department of Investment Companies and Capital Market Infrastructure and in the Department of Financial Services, Licensing and Functional Supervision, where he gained experience in capital market regulation. His primary obligations included conducting administrative proceedings at the requests of entities forming the capital market infrastructure (i.e. entities operating on regulated markets, central securities depository, etc.), participating in inspections of supervised entities, preparing legal opinions on the legal situation of supervised entities, as well as representing the Polish Financial Supervision Authority at meetings of supervisory boards and at general meetings of supervised companies.

Tomasz Kamiński also participated, on behalf of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority, in obtaining the authorization to issue LEI codes necessary for the reporting of information on derivative contracts to trade repositories. Before working at the Polish Financial Supervision Authority, he also gained his experience in a renowned law firm.

Tomasz Kamiński graduated with honors from the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Warsaw. During his studies, he was also a member of the Legal Clinic at the University of Warsaw where he was providing free legal advices. He is also a graduate of the British Law Center organized by the University of Warsaw in cooperation with the University of Cambridge and the School of Spanish Law run by the University of Warsaw with the participation of lecturers from the University of Cuenca.
