Experience

Paweł Głuchowski-Taczalski is a lawyer in our Law Firm specializing in litigation, particularly in the areas of civil, economic, and financial law, as well as in labor disputes. He has gained professional experience working in law firms dealing with civil law matters, especially in banking and financial law. From 2021 to 2024, he worked as an external expert in the Banking and Capital Market Client Department at the Office of the Financial Ombudsman. From 2021 to 2025, he represented individual clients in court proceedings related to banking law, particularly in litigation regarding loan agreements indexed to foreign currency. As part of his professional duties, he served a capital company engaged in the collection of bank receivables.

Paweł Głuchowski-Taczalski completed his master's degree at the Faculty of Law and Administration of Adam Mickiewicz University, defending a master's thesis entitled 'Consumer Credit Agreement', under the supervision of Prof. Adam Olejniczak.

On May 14, 2025, he was registered on the list of legal advisers.

Privately, he is interested in the history of the 19th century, traveling in the Middle East and Africa, and creating music.
