Experience

Attorney at Rożko i Wspólnicy Law Firm, which she joined in August 2025. She graduated from the Faculty of Law and Administration at the University of Warsaw with a master's thesis written under the supervision of Dr. B. T. Bieńkowska, entitled "Interrogation of children in Polish criminal proceedings." Member of the District Bar Council in Warsaw.

She specializes in providing comprehensive services to financial market entities, with particular emphasis on litigation concerning indexed and foreign currency-denominated loans. Her practice also includes comprehensive legal services for business entities, civil law issues, including investment funds, as well as proceedings concerning the protection of personal rights and family law. In her professional practice to date, she has also represented clients in criminal proceedings, handling cases concerning the protection of non-property rights.

She gained her professional experience in renowned law firms, working with teams specializing in highly complex litigation, requiring both in-depth analysis and a strategic approach to litigation.

Outside of her professional practice, she enjoys long walks, and her passion is music from the 1980s and 1990s, which is a source of inspiration and a form of respite from her intense professional practice.
