Experience

Kamil Jurkowski is an attorney-at-law responsible for handling matters involving M&A transactions, corporate restructurings, corporate governance and ongoing corporate advisory services. His practice focuses in particular on preparing and negotiating corporate documentation, supporting corporate bodies in decision-making processes, and advising on reorganization projects. He has 10 years of experience advising entrepreneurs and capital groups, combining transactional and corporate practice with experience in corporate disputes and contract law advisory.

Kamil Jurkowski graduated in law and history from the University of Szczecin. He also completed the English Law School organized by the British Law Centre in cooperation with the University of Cambridge and Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań. He was also an Erasmus scholarship holder at the University of Montpellier, France.

At the University of Warsaw, he prepared and submitted his doctoral dissertation entitled “The Scope of Shareholders’ Autonomy of Will in Capital Companies in the Exercise of Voting Right.”. He is the author of over a dozen articles and case notes in the field of company law and corporate governance, published in leading Polish legal journals, among others, in Przegląd Prawa Handlowego, Monitor Prawniczy and Rejent.

In his private life, he is interested in history, in particular the history of Poland up to the 17th century, geopolitics, sport (he plays football, runs and regularly works out at the gym) and French cinema.
